

An efficient way to make Coloured Asphalt with no waste

We made some very nice coloured asphalt with Anglian Water this week in St Neots with one of our new Roadmenders.

Using the Roadmender we simply show up at the job site, heat and mix the required grade and quantity of SROH compliant hot-mix asphalt, add 3% red oxide pigment, tip out and lay as normal. Permanent first time, saving time, money and waste.

For more information visit: www.roadmenderasphalt.com

